

5:12a Children's Short Stories

Vocabulary – New words in the story

Conflict – The problem in the story

Rising Action – The events leading up to the “big action”

Turning Point or Climax – When the characters face the problem

Falling Action – The resulting action

Resolution – The final solution to the problem

Point of View – Who is telling the story?

Narrative Techniques – Creating interest in the story

5:12b Children's Short Stories

Setting – Where is the story taking place?

Major Characters:

- Protagonist – The good guy or central character; the hero of the story
- Antagonist – The bad guy, rival, or adversary of the story

5:12c Children's Short Story

Turning Point or Climax of Story

