

7:2a Eternity

*at first i was the sun screaming brilliantly across the earth waking my people once i composed an epic tale of a trojan war
with an aweless hero who blinded a cyclops with his ingenious skill then i zoomed across eras to paint the mona lisa i finished it just in time to make it to philadelphia where tom and a few friends were signing some documents and of course i had to john hancock it after sinking the spanish armada i shipped out my theory of relativity or was that after i outlawed slavery? it's a good thing that i am eternity
or i never would have found the time to make a plate of chocolate chip cookies*
